On the cover:

Randi Ford is a Michigan landscape painter who is inspired by the beauty, life and spirit that exists within nature. It is her life's calling to capture the energy and life within the landscape through her paintings. Lake Michigan and its dunes are a reoccurring subject within Randi's work and what inspired her the most when first pursuing painting after graduating with her B.F.A at Grand Valley State University. It is her path to continue painting Michigan's beautiful vast landscape as well as other landscapes throughout the world. You can view more of Randi's work at RandiFordArt.com, or in person through her galleries and art festivals. You can connect with her through her social media accounts and her newsletter to stay up to date with her future work and events.

About the Harbor Country Chamber of Commerce

The Harbor Country Chamber of Commerce (HCCC) was formed in 1981 to promote tourism and commerce in the towns of New Buffalo, Three Oaks, Union Pier, Lakeside, Harbert, Sawyer, Grand Beach and Michiana. The success of the Chamber's efforts led to trademarking the destination as "Harbor Country" and catapulted the area to national prominence as a major Midwest destination.

Today, the Chamber continues to promote the area, and surrounding communities, as an attractive place to live, work, and play.

HARBOR COUNTRY MEMBER SPOTLIGHTS

GET TO KNOW SOME OF OUR MEMBERS AND LEARN ABOUT THEIR BUSINESSES

John Natsis used to be in the vacation-rental business. Now he's in the "boutique" vacation-rental business.

The difference? As the former co-owner of Bluefish Vacation Rentals, John co-managed (with his partner, RE/MAX Harbor Country realtor Tom Hemingway) more than 60 vacation homes for clients all over Harbor Country for 17 years. Today, as co-owner of newly formed Beachtown Vacation Rentals, he's managing only a handful of vacation properties that are owned by him and Hemingway alone.

"For nearly 20 years, we've hosted thousands of guests in our three Union Pier properties," says John. "There's a five-bedroom house, a one-bedroom cottage behind it that can be rented separately, and a three-bedroom cottage. We have something for everybody."

The five-bedroom "Beachtown Guest House," two blocks from Townline Beach, offers a living room/dining room with an open floor plan that is ideal for a larger group. Additional amenities include a screened-in porch and a fenced-in yard with a small campfire area. A sleeper sofa in the living room and a futon in an upstairs den raise the occupancy to as many as 12.

The adjacent one-bedroom "Beachtown Cottage," perfect for a couple or small family, features vaulted ceilings, skylights, two fireplaces and a small sunroom. There's a two-burner stove and a small fridge in the kitchen, plus a gas grill outside on the deck.

The three-bedroom "Koi Cottage," on Nolan Avenue, is just half a block from Miller Beach. Features include a living room fireplace, fenced-in yard, two screened-in porches and a separate bunkhouse with its own bath and another full bed, allowing lodging for up to eight.

"All of the properties are nicely appointed, well maintained, and updated regularly," says John. "And with only a few properties to look after, we can give our clients — and the properties themselves — a lot of individual attention."

This also gives John and Tom more time to engage in real estate development. "We've really enjoyed the different projects we've been able to do locally over the years," says John. "Now we'll be able to do more of them."

TOM HEMINGWAY, RE/MAX HARBOR COUNTRY

The short answer for why RE/MAX Harbor Country realtor Tom Hemingway and his partner, John Natsis, sold Bluefish Vacation Rentals last year is...to see what develops.

After operating Bluefish for the past 17 years, the two made the decision to sell the business they founded so they could devote more of their time and energy to real estate development.

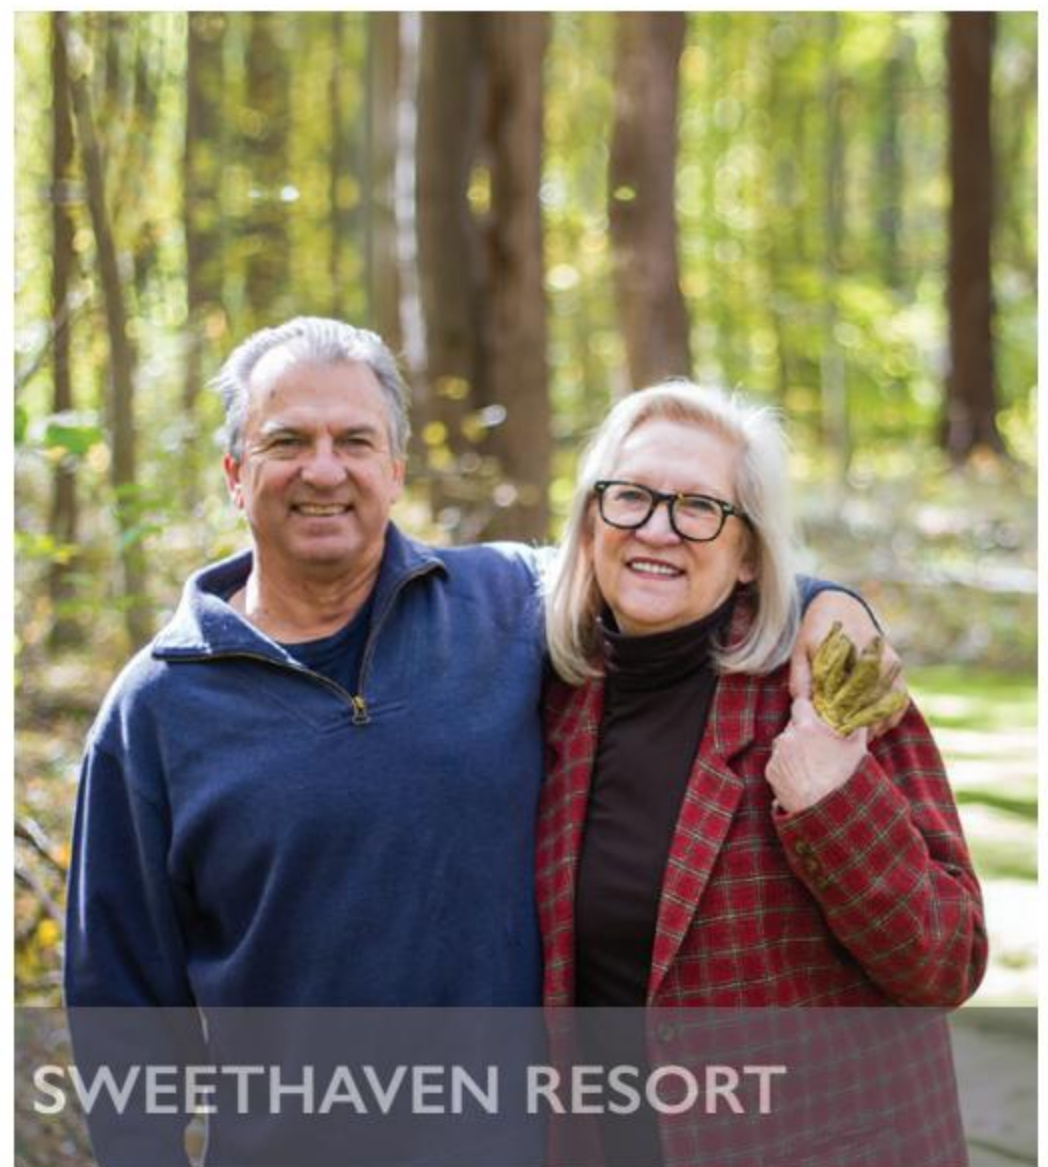

Of course, RE/MAX Harbor Country is still Tom's "day job," as it has been since 2003. Joining the firm was the result of what in hindsight seemed to be a natural career progression that began in Chicago in the 1990s, when he earned a living designing and building nightclub interiors and doing freelance construction work for ad agencies and other clients.

He and John purchased a vacation home in Union Pier in 1997, then moved here full-time two years later, after purchasing the Firefly Resort as a development project. By the time they sold the resort in 2001, they had acquired a second vacation property in Union Pier and soon after hatched the idea to start a vacation-rental business here. As fate would have it, Tom and John leased an office from RE/MAX broker Dan Coffey, and two years later Tom joined the RE/MAX Harbor Country— team, where he's done quite well for himself — and the company.

"I'm usually ranked in the top five for sales in Harbor Country," he says, "and in the top 10 in Southwest Michigan." Tom attributes much of his success to his construction background. "I understand houses, I understand construction. If something needs to be fixed in order to sell a property, I know what to do and how to do it. The same goes with buyers. I often end up helping make changes and improve what they have."

So what does he look for when he and John shop for properties? "With real estate, it's always about location," Tom says, "but we also like underdog properties. Even if they're falling down, we love the challenge of building them back up and breathing new life in them."

SWEETHAVEN RESORT

At the heart and soul of Sweethaven Resort, owners Chuck and Liz Garasic say, "We're in the business of making people happy". You can almost smell the campfires and taste the s'mores as you walk through the one of a kind retreat, originally purchased by the owners in 1992. Throughout the years, the energetic and friendly couple have lovingly restored, renovated, and expanded the accommodations on the property with their own creativity, vision and hand craftsmanship.

Beautiful vintage-style evokes the charm and heritage of the original rustic cabins, yet each has been brought back to life with well-appointed modern comforts, warm and homey decorating touches and lovely lake cottage design.

A nostalgic journey through the resort's scrapbook documents generations of families enjoying idyllic summers and creating memories from the 1920s through the 1970s. Today, the owners enjoy welcoming guests who often include children from those photos who show up with their own families and marvel at the transformation.

Sweethaven is nestled within 10 private acres of lush wooded landscape that is criss-crossed by well maintained, moss covered walking trails. The quaint and peaceful cottages all feature porches, hot tubs, bbq grill and WiFi. Each is named for birds that inhabit the surrounding tall trees, a nod to the breathtaking natural setting of the place.

Accommodations are available for groups or gatherings of any size, and always include the invitation to "Bring the dog!" Guests will enjoy unlimited charm and gracious hospitality whether booking a classic family vacation, romantic couples' hideaway, or a large group getaway. Even special occasions like weddings and family reunions are often celebrated at this gorgeous location just east of downtown Union Pier.

Sweethaven's mission is to make sure their guests' every comfort is met, with thoughtful touches like firewood, cozy throws, and well-stocked kitchens providing everything you might possibly need including coffee and condiments. "If you don't find it in the cottage," say the personable hosts whose home is also on the property, "just ask and you can borrow ours."

Sweethaven Resort is open year round.

WELCOTT FARM: A DOG RETREAT

The familiar phrase “lucky dog” is never more true than at Welcott Farm, a one-of-a kind dog care destination beautifully situated on 20 acres of Harbor Country farmland. Whether your pet is checking-in for day care or extended stay boarding, the peaceful setting and mindful care caters to the heart and soul of your dog’s true nature.

As lifelong dog lovers, advocates and shelter volunteers, hosts Jeff Welch and Tim Scott have turned their passion and experience into becoming professional caretakers. In addition to devoting their time to the guests at Welcott Farm, they have three gorgeous bloodhounds of their own and foster dogs from Great Lakes Golden Retriever Rescue. They are truly living their dream.

Far away from noise and traffic, dogs can stretch their legs and express their unique personalities. Throughout the day, they romp together in a secure 3,000 square foot outdoor enclosure in carefully selected, always supervised play groups. Careful observation ensures each animal feels comfortable and compatible with their playmates. An indoor play space allows dogs to play together no matter what the weather. When it’s time to relax, eat and sleep, each dog will retire to their own spacious personal pen in the immaculately clean kennel area.

“We wanted to create an atmosphere that’s enriching for the dogs but I find that in turn it’s enriched my life” say Welch. At Welcott Farm, it’s not just about pampering pups. Jeff and Tim focus on a dog’s individual personality, temperament and needs. One-on-one nurturing attention is given to each animal from the moment they arrive. Dogs who are new to the retreat, or nervous about being boarded, are given time and space in the separate reception room, to get to know their caretakers and adjust to their new surroundings. Many of Welcott’s guests are frequent guests who can’t wait to join their four-legged friends.

Pets with special needs or medications are welcome and cared for too. If requested, bathing is available. Welcott’s mission is to be a home away from home for the beloved dog(s) in your family.

MIX & MINGLE

Jason Whalen makes the world more beautiful. One home at a time. The interior designer and proprietor of Mix & Mingle, the New Buffalo-based home furnishings store and design studio, operates under the premise that your home should not only be stylish and comfortable, it should also be a reflection of who you are.

Whether his clients are redoing a single room or building a new house, Jason can assist them with every aspect of the interior design process, from space planning and furniture layouts to the selection of fabrics, rugs and accessories, even the paint and wall coverings. “I begin by taking a look at what they have going on and what existing pieces we’re working with, if any.”

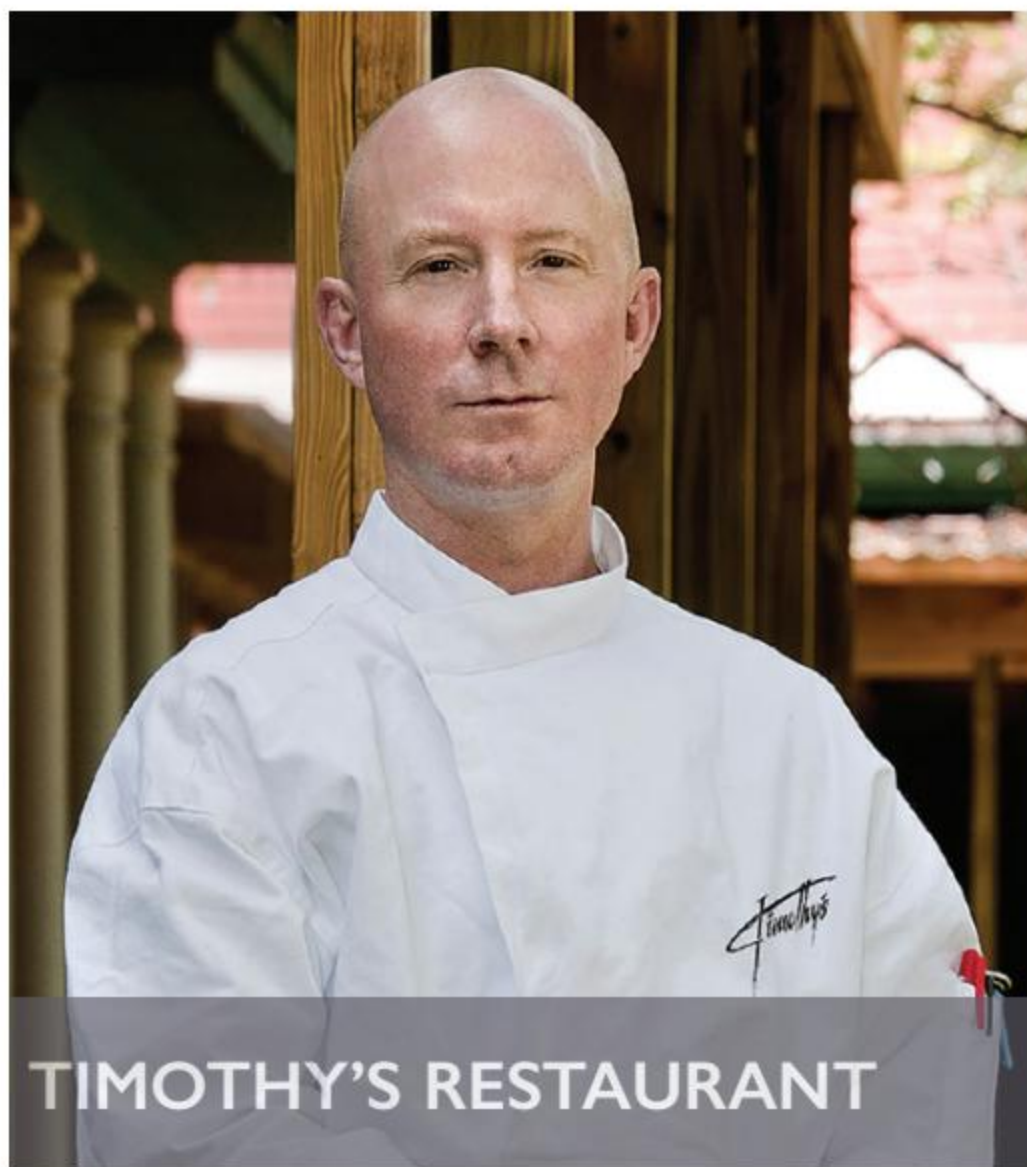

Then it’s time to discuss the project. “It’s important to understand their needs and wants, and their budget,” he explains, “but also their lifestyle. Are they traditional, or contemporary? Do they entertain a lot? Do they prefer neutrals, or a splash of color? Then I figure out a solution that’s going to work for them.”

For Jason, that’s the fun part, and he’s obviously very good at it. After all, he’s been serving homeowners throughout Harbor Country and Michiana since 2006, when he and his partner, award-winning interior designer Richar, of Richar Interiors in Chicago, first opened Mix & Mingle at the intersection of U.S. Hwy. 12 and Wilson Road.

One characteristic that sets Jason apart is his special fondness for “shaking things up”—combining contemporary furnishings with vintage and even primitive objects to create a signature look. Unexpected pairings can have unique results.” It’s a strategy that’s evident all over the store, where contemporary artworks, vases and light fixtures are “mixed” and “mingled” with antique farm implements, vintage furniture and chandeliers.

As for the name of the business, Jason concedes that, you might assume from its name that Mix & Mingle is a bar or a social club. But he’s okay with that. “I actually like the connotation that it’s a social thing — a putting together and blending,” he says. “That’s what interior design is.”

TIMOTHY'S RESTAURANT

A lakeshore dining favorite, Timothy's Restaurant is renowned for Asian-inspired seafood and other dishes, beautifully created by owner and chef, Timothy Sizer. All of the artfully prepared and presented cuisine at Timothy's represents the chef's passion and commitment to dining excellence. There's nothing ordinary about the menu, which features an impressive variety of lake and ocean fish, flown in fresh each day.

Sizer began his culinary career in Florida where he developed his own unique flavors and signature sauces that contrast and compliment seafood. Chef Timothy himself is locally grown, and in the early 2000s he returned home to open his own restaurant, specializing in "fish with an Asian flare."

When Sizer recently decided to expand and relocate Timothy's from the original home at the Gordon Beach Inn, he chose another spot with local history. At the former site of Miller's Country House on Red Arrow Highway in Union Pier, the freshly renovated and redecorated Timothy's features several dining environments.

The main dining room features sophisticated artistic décor and a fireplace. A huge picture window offers scenic views to a wooded back yard, gardens, pond and beautifully lit trees. The adjoining Woodland Room also overlooks the gardens, features the art of Roger Harvey and a fireplace for more intimate private celebrations.

The Grill Room welcomes guests with an antique Brunswick bar and walls covered with art by Joe Hindley. Diners get an open view to the action in the kitchen, including Chef Timothy's workstation where he oversees each meal. In warmer weather, Jake's Backyard is a fun outdoor dining spot for wood fired pizzas, specialty cocktails, appetizers and classic standards around the tiki bar, fountains and fire pits.

Sizer only uses the finest and freshest ingredients, from the exotic to locally grown. The complete menu offers grand beginnings, potages and greens, sandwiches, main events, sides and desserts.

Timothy's is proud to be a year-round destination providing fine cuisine and superb service in an unexpectedly beautiful setting. It's the perfect place for special occasions, summertime fun, and weekly specials in the off-season that attract a loyal following of satisfied customers.

DEER CREEK HUNT CLUB

Outdoor fun, acres of natural beauty, wildlife, sportsmanship, skill, challenge and a relaxed social atmosphere all come together at Deer Creek Hunt Club. Open to the public as well as to members, this exceptionally scenic recreational destination includes a world class sporting clay course and the finest upland bird hunting around, all situated across 500 acres in Three Oaks.

Deer Creek's two sporting clay courses consist of 24 stations that wind through woods and fields over a broad landscape of ravines, valleys, wetlands, creeks and bridges. They are open year-round and cater to all skill levels with a full variety of challenges. Deer Creek also offers a skeet field, a wobble house, and a five stand with eight traps. Beginners can arrive with no experience and have complete confidence, knowing that professional instruction is available and safety is always the #1 priority.

From October through March, Deer Creek also offers acres of grassy fields for prime pheasant and chukar hunting. Professional guides with dogs are available, or hunters can bring their own dogs.

If you're looking for a unique choice for group get togethers, private parties, corporate meetings, or company outings, this is the place. The beautiful wooden lodge club house features a main floor lounge with cozy stone fireplace, handmade Amish furnishings, comfy seating, dining tables, and a pro-shop.

While always open to the public, three membership packages are also available (Sporting Clay, Executive and Corporate). In addition to the membership packages, the upper level conference room can be reserved for corporate meetings, parties or catered to fit your needs. It features a spacious, well-appointed meeting room with full amenities such as conference table, flat screen TV, food service area, restrooms and beautiful pavilion views of the grounds.

The expert staff at Deer Creek are highly knowledgeable, passionate, and ready to assist in planning everything from scheduling to instruction to custom catering options.

The new owner Rob Bult and general manager Chris Svoboda have plans to "bring back the social aspects of the club" by hosting special events, fun parties and friendly game nights.

"We want our guests to experience an enjoyable, stress-free vacation from the moment they arrive." That is the mission for Bluefish Vacation Rentals and their owners, Jason and Erika Milovich.

As the largest manager of vacation rentals in Harbor Country, Bluefish represents a growing portfolio of 90+ high quality rental homes, from charming beachside cottages to elegant lakefront estates. For over a decade, the Milovichs have built an outstanding reputation with visitors and homeowners alike, by offering beautiful properties, seamless booking, meticulous cleanliness and incomparable customer service.

Bluefish guests enjoy exclusive benefits like the free online "Guest Pass", which allows guests to learn about their vacation homes' amenities and details, discover local restaurants, shopping, events, attractions and insider tips. "What we love most is the people connection," Erika explains. "We get such joy out of sharing our community and showing off this wonderful place we call home!"

Guests also appreciate the Clean House Promise, which guarantees that when guests check-in, they'll open the door to impeccable cleanliness and comfort. "If anything is not up to expectations, they can connect with us directly and we'll take care of it," says Jason.

The couple pride themselves on the number of repeat clients they have cultivated. By studying industry data, listening to customer feedback and staying current on vacation rental trends, Bluefish consistently delivers what today's vacationers and home owners most require and desire. Loyal clients know to expect a personalized, elevated experience.

This year, Bluefish is excited to extend their expertise and resources beyond vacation rentals, offering off-season property management and care-taking services to Harbor Country homeowners. It's the perfect way to ensure peace of mind while you're traveling away from home.

Erika and Jason agree, "It's really about relationships". The Bluefish concierge approach goes far beyond a simple booking service, to happily accommodating guest requests. From stocking a home with groceries, to making restaurant or activity reservations, providing a celebratory touch for special occasions, or simply turning up the heat for winter arrivals... expect a warm welcome home at Bluefish Vacation Rentals.

"Our mission is to provide affordable, accessible, safe, motivating, and fun environments for people to work out in." That may sound like a tall order, but it's actually just another day for Katie Maroney and her team at Equilibrium Fitness: Southwest Michigan's Best 24 Hour Fitness Facilities. Last year, Equilibrium Fitness celebrated 5 years in business and added a second location in Three Oaks, while also upgrading and renovating their original location in New Buffalo.

Members get treated right with 24-hour access to both facilities, discounted classes, small class sizes, equipment orientations, and lots of individual attention from their experienced staff. The dedicated team at Equilibrium Fitness takes pride in getting to know each member. "We find it very rewarding to see our members' progress and enjoy celebrating their success. When you come here you feel how much we truly care, and that you are a part of our fitness family."

Flexible short and long-term membership options are available and allow you to customize what works for your schedule and budget. There's a rewards program for gym and class attendance and referrals. Guests are always welcome to purchase short term passes for the gym and classes.

Both locations feature innovative cardio equipment with built in TVs and virtual active software, selectorized and plate loaded machines, free weights, kettle-bells, open power racks, and in Three Oaks there is a platform with bumper plates, a custom turf training area, and functional training equipment (TRX suspension trainers).

Classes offered weekly include: Spin Cycle, Barre, Mat Pilates, Fusion, and Group Training. Monthly instructional clinics are free for members. Personal Training is affordable and available Mon-Sat. There are also seasonal challenges and incentive programs for members and class participants.

A motto of Katie Maroney's is "Train like an Athlete, live like a Champion". Her experience playing Division I Hockey and being a Free Agent have taught her that there is an inner athlete in everyone. "Whether a guest, gym member, training client, or class participant everyone is welcome, and we're here to challenge and support you during your fitness journey."

While many have embraced the farm-to-table/foodie movement, Colleen Froehlich says, "It's just part of my DNA". Growing up working in her family owned grocery store, "I just loved everything about the food business. I loved having my hands in it. I'd be making sausages with my dad in the morning, in the afternoon I'd be up at the register bagging groceries with my uncle, later I'd go upstairs to make potato salad with Grandma".

From those authentic roots, Froehlich's creativity, passion and energy led her to master the arts of simple, fresh, wholesome foods made primarily from locally grown ingredients. She eventually opened Froehlich's Bakery & Deli, a must-stop destination in downtown Three Oaks for over 26 years. "When you follow your purpose it all comes together. You have to use your gifts and I was lucky to recognize mine very early on".

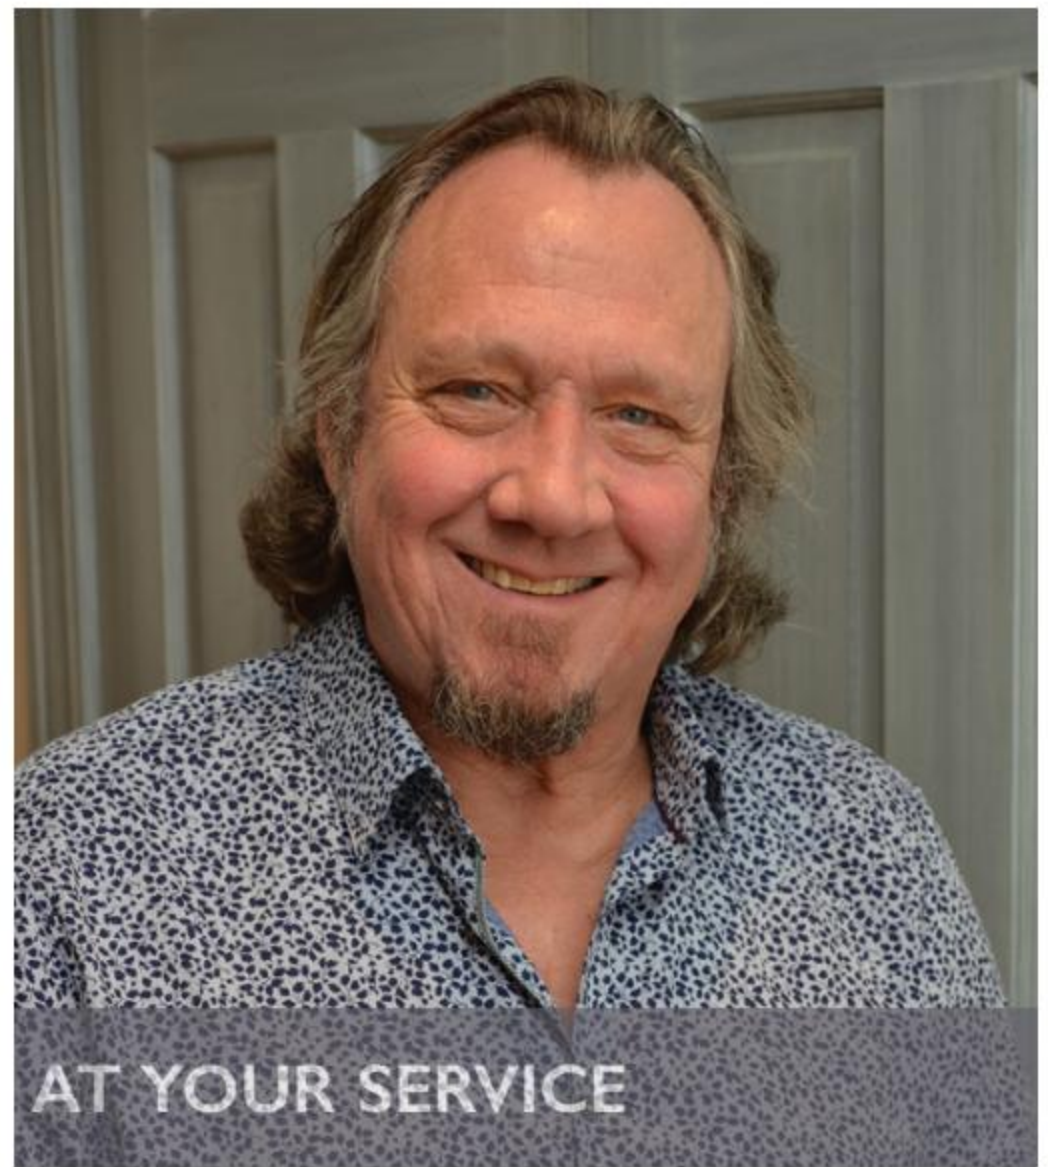

Now Froehlich's brand is expanding, bringing all the well-loved deliciousness on a much larger scale. At the new Froehlich's Kitchen & Pantry, guests will discover a wholly integrated food experience, artfully housed in a renovated historic building right across the street from the original store.

On the lower level, discover a unique village-like atmosphere with a full-service restaurant serving lunch and dinner. The market area offers Froehlich's homemade pantry favorites including jams, jellies, preserves, pickles, sauces and specialty foods. There's also a wine shop, plus a carry-out deli with fresh-made sandwiches, soups, salads and frozen prepared entrees. Recycled vintage windows cleverly divide the space with open views into the canning, processing and prep kitchens.

Up above is 19 North, a spacious loft-like event venue featuring original architectural elements such as exposed brick, tin type ceilings, huge windows and wood plank flooring. Perfect for weddings and celebrations, with a built-in private entry, bridal suite and catering kitchen.

Want more? Cross the street to Froehlich's original location for artisan breads, pies, pastries, unique desserts and special occasion cakes. You can also experience Froehlich's premier catering around the corner at the Three Oaks Social Club, a smaller gathering space for hosting intimate events.

For custom builder Doug Nelson, his business, At Your Service, represents the lessons and values that he's picked up throughout his entire life. Work is not just making a living. It's art. The art of building — creating, designing, producing.

His influences are eclectic. Doug started building on his grandfather's Connecticut farm and took construction jobs to pay his way through UCLA Film School. His creative passions took him touring with musicians, displaying art in the Smithsonian, publishing photography in national publications, creating award-winning film and television media, and producing Grammy-nominated music.

After college, he got his contractor's license and started his own company, building everything from custom homes to music studios. He credits his grandfather for planting these seeds. A Swedish immigrant, he taught Doug about what he calls "the New England ethic" as it applies not only to woodworking, but also to living and loving life. "I was 8 or 9 when he handed me a set of nail bags and taught me how to cut, dowel and peg, and to create dovetail joints," he says. "While we were working, he would talk to me about the attention to detail needed to make a product that lasts, and how the spirit of the way we worked affected not only the product, but our life, too."

Today, these valuable life lessons continue to inspire Doug and his team as they bring their clients' dreams to fruition. "From small additions to lakehouse and barn remodels to large commercial projects," he says, "they all get the same love and attention to detail."

At Your Service is a company of craftsmen who do it once, do it right, and stand by their work. "I enjoy every aspect of the creative process, from concept and design to breaking ground and finishing details," says Doug. "It all connects and gives me a feeling of accomplishment when all the elements come together."

Want to know more? You'll find dozens of examples of their projects on atyourservice.builders.

Sawyer Highlands Church was formed in 1952 by a group of men and women who had a vision to love God and their community. From the earliest days, learning what the Bible has to say about God and his people has been at the very center of its mission.

The church had simple beginnings, but as it grew, it became known as a place of worship for all ages, with a vibrant youth ministry, a missions program, and a God-centered vision of life. In October of 2012, Sawyer Highlands Church launched a second campus in New Buffalo, initially at New Buffalo High School. That campus became known as Converge Community Church.

"We chose the name Converge because it demonstrates what we have experienced in the Gospel," says Lead Pastor Jeff Dryden. "Jesus' death on the cross brings people from very different backgrounds together into one family. As it was true in the first century, it is true now. We welcome those who have been local residents for years, as well as those who've more recently come to New Buffalo. In the church, they 'converge' to become one family."

In June of 2016, Converge Community Church moved into its new facility at 601 W. Buffalo Street, a commercial building that once housed an iconic car dealership. "There was great delight in taking a run-down building and making something new," says Pastor Mike Bettig. "For us, it symbolizes the renovation that Jesus does within people when they receive him."

Students from both campuses participate in the youth ministry, which includes summer trips, retreats, and mentoring. "It's all about growing in truth within the context of healthy relationships," says Youth Minister Joe Koehler.

Sunday services are at 10 a.m. in Sawyer and 11 a.m. in New Buffalo. "We welcome all who want to join us worshipping around the Word of God," says Pastor Rob Nash.

What if you could see your property bursting to life, in harmony with nature as it was intended to be? Jack Pizzo and his expert team of restoration ecologists and landscape architects, are ready to show you how to recover your land's natural ecosystems and bring back the natural beauty of Michigan.

The award winning Pizzo & Associates, Ltd. team has offices in Three Oaks and throughout the Chicago area. They hold passionately to the belief that any property, large or small, has the potential to be a beautiful, functional, thriving environment for native wildflowers, butterflies, songbirds and other wildlife.

In their projects, Pizzo uses plant species that are native to the area. Their vision is to heal your land and restore its' original ecosystem. "As an ecologist, I see your landscape from horizon to horizon" Pizzo says thoughtfully. "I'll show you what you have, what it was originally, and what it could be."

To bring land back into natural balance, Pizzo identifies and eliminates invasive species, overgrown brush or excessive shade. Once the proper conditions are restored, native plants may regenerate on their own or can be reintroduced with proper planning and care. With that comes regional birds, butterflies, pollinators, insects and other wild creatures.

It's amazing how quickly diversity can return. "You can plant a single milkweed in a parking lot and in just weeks monarch butterflies will appear. It all makes perfect sense," Pizzo says smiling. "Native plants support native insects, which are eaten by native birds, which are in turn eaten by other native animals and so on." He further points out that a native landscape typically costs less to maintain, "It can handle most anything that Mother Nature throws at it."

Pizzo & Associates, Ltd. provides a range of services. You might consider a pre-purchase or pre-construction assessment of your property. Pizzo's experts will collaborate with your architect, engineer or builder to help develop site plans that maximize your desire to enjoy Michigan's natural beauty. Other services include planning, landscape design, planting and maintenance for your land's new natural beauty.

If you think Chicago style pizza is always deep dish— think again. The original Chicago pizza is actually called Tavern Style, with a crispy thin crust, and square cut pieces. Now you're thinking like Dawn Workman of Villa Nova Pizzeria. She ought to know, she was raised on the stuff. Dawn's neighborhood friend had an authentic Sicilian family recipe, a closely guarded secret, which they entrusted to Dawn when she decided to bring the exclusive Villa Nova taste to New Buffalo. Since opening, Dawn and her team have stuck to that secret recipe every day, and it has earned them the #1 rated Tavern Style Pizza award from ABC Chicago's Hungry Hound. Loyal customers certainly agree.

Their signature pizzas are cooked from scratch each day using only the finest fresh ingredients, all made exclusively for Villa Nova, including the dough that creates a one-of-a-kind flakey crisp crust, delicious sauce, fresh grated cheese and amazing hand made sausage. Other delicious toppings are also locally sourced.

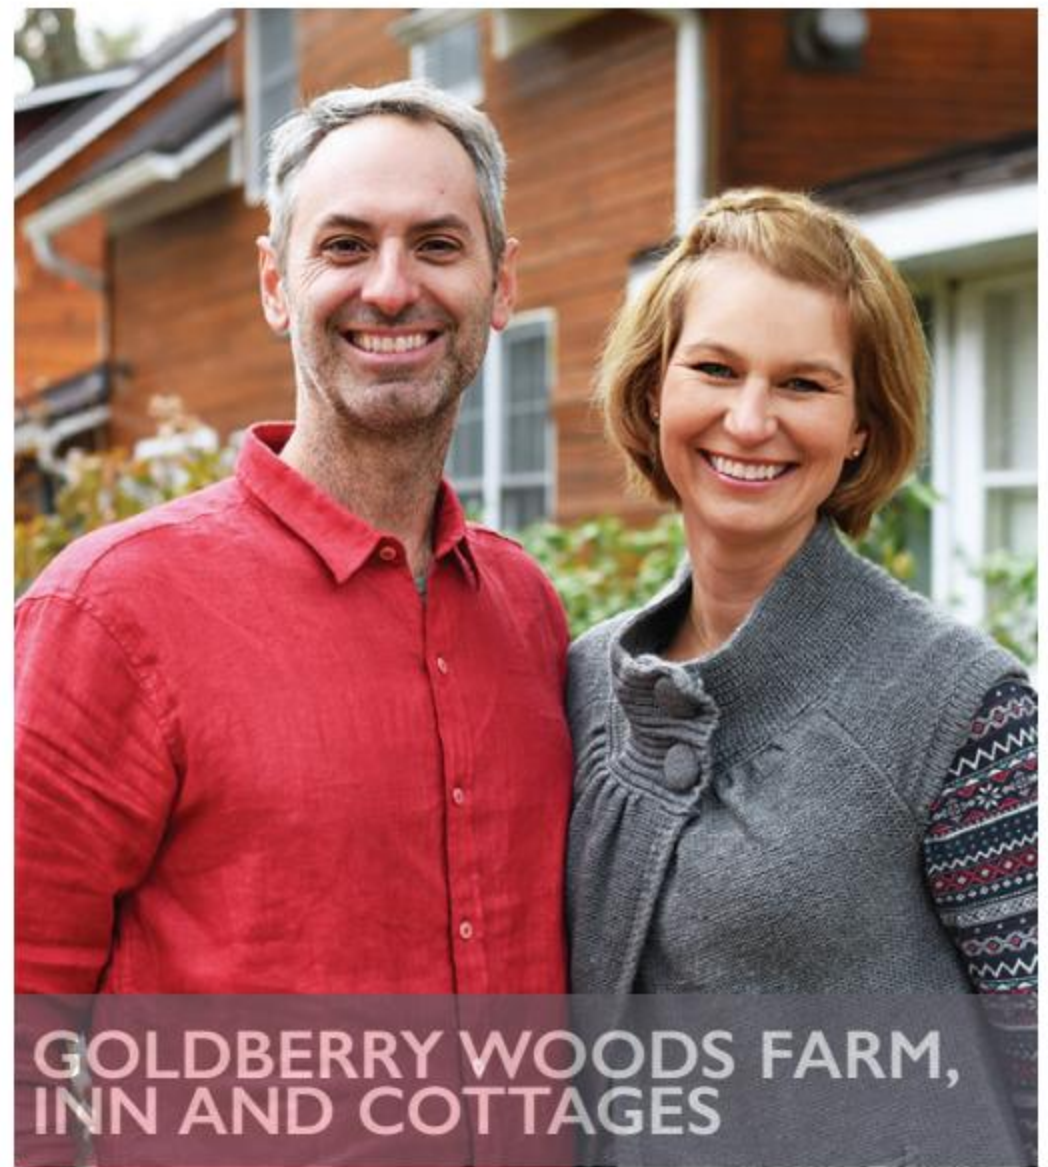

Even the way they prepare and cut their pizzas makes Villa Nova a special taste experience. Every square cut slice of sausage pizza is guaranteed to include its own big chunk of meat. Or, if you prefer pepperoni, you'll love how it tastes served under the cheese.

The popular dine in, carry out and delivery spot also offers pasta dinners, sandwiches (including Italian beef), homemade soups and delicious salads. Don't forget dessert—ask about "The Cookie," a legendary favorite.

An all new outdoor bar and dining patio will welcome guests in 2019. The full-service bar features an extensive beer and wine selection, including a large choice of local craft brews. Classic cocktails and specialty drinks are also available. The scene is family friendly and beach casual with high top community tables, a putt-putt golf green, huge fire pit, corn hole toss and other games. Special events and live music nights add to the fun.

Stop by, call for pick up or delivery, or order online. Villa Nova is also perfect for your special catering and private event occasions.

Discover the relaxed charm of a unique Inn with a farm-to-table focus. Goldberry Woods is close to the beach, yet tucked into a peaceful, natural setting on the Galien River's edge. It features an organic farm and acres of access to enjoy outdoor experiences, along with a new pool and barn venue planned for 2019 for groups of 50 guests.

Innkeepers Julie & Eric Haberichter are passionate about providing an immaculate resort experience, fun activities, a nature sanctuary and deliciously healthy, fresh homegrown, homemade food.

"Our farm-to-table focus appeals to people who care where their food comes from," says chef-owner Julie. We serve a multi-course, made from scratch breakfast that is bountiful, local, fresh and as organic as possible, grown mostly on our own farm. Guests are invited to tour the grounds, gather greens and fruit from the orchards and gardens, or even play with the chickens. Each evening the Inn also presents savory nibbles and local Michigan wines served in the inviting Great Room.

The main house features eight guest rooms and suites. Each is decorated to showcase the one-of-a-kind handcrafted beds, made by a local artisan using native Michigan trees. Charming vintage furnishings mix with modern comforts and amenities like luxury linens, private baths, in-room Jacuzzis, cozy gas fireplaces and flat screen streaming TVs. Two private cottages feature screened porches and views of the river or creek, each accommodating 8-12 guests.

"It's not just a rustic farm stay, or only for guests who want to be active," says Eric. "While some like to hike, bike or use the Inn's canoes, kayaks or paddle boards to go out on the river, others simply want to rest, relax and reset." You can read a book on the sun porch, sip a glass of wine by the fire, stroll through the wooded trails, enjoy an evening by the bonfire pits, or head down to the beach and watch the sun set over the lake. Every type of visitor will find their own special vacation at Goldberry Woods.

BEACH SAFETY TIPS

1. Be aware of rip currents. Even strong swimmers can get caught in these powerful currents that can happen at any beach along Lake Michigan. Safety tips for avoiding and escaping rip currents are provided at all Harbor Country beaches. Check rip tide warnings at weather.gov/crh using 49117 and 49129 zip codes.
2. Know how to call for help. Call 911 for emergencies and 269-684-5274 for non-emergencies.
3. Know how to report your location. When using the road end beaches in Chikaming and New Buffalo Township, report the number of the nearest Blue Mile Marker and the name of the beach access point. These markers are coordinated to the Berrien County 911 system. The New Buffalo Beach is the only beach staffed by lifeguards.
4. Be aware of water quality. E-coli counts in Lake Michigan fluctuate and water quality is monitored by the Berrien County Health Department. Beach closings and advisories are posted at deq.state.mi.us.
5. Take only memories, leave only footprints. Trash receptacles are available at all beaches. Please do your part to keep the beaches clean.

GROUP GATHERINGS REIMAGINED

Tired of renting multiple houses or staying in multiple hotel rooms? Wishing for an XL space where your entire group can share time together? Longing for a tree-filled setting with a heated swimming pool, fire pit, decks, porches and grills? Whether you're planning a large family vacation for a week, an intimate wedding destination, an off-site corporate retreat, a raucous college reunion, a golf outing, or "wine/craft beer/liquor of your choice" weekend, Grand Beach Inn and Lake Michigan Reunion and Retreat both offer the perfect place to host a trip to remember.

Grand Beach Inn is steps away from Lake Michigan, nestled in beautiful Grand Beach. Grand Beach Inn offers sleeping arrangements for 55 people, a full commercial kitchen, sunny heated swimming pool, large outdoor firepit, all on 5 glorious acres just steps from Lake Michigan beaches.

Lake Michigan Reunion and Retreat sits in Union Pier, Michigan less than ½ mile away from the beaches of Lake Michigan. LMRR comfortably sleeps 35 and offers beautiful accommodations in a restored country inn, complete with a heated swimming pool, commercial kitchen, outdoor firepit, and plenty of outdoor gathering space on the pool deck and the over-sized front porch.

Both Inns are located in beautiful Harbor Country. Galleries, antique stores, craft breweries, tasty vineyards, fun restaurants, timeless ice cream shops, smart outlet shopping, challenging golf courses, and Vegas-sized casinos are all just moments away.

Imagine the best group gathering ever! Check out Grand Beach Inn and Lake Michigan Reunion and Retreat.

WINE, BEER, SPIRITS

With a climate similar to Napa Valley in California, the vineyards in and around Harbor Country have been producing award-winning wines for decades. Today, Michigan vintages rival those of the west, east and Pacific coasts and share the stage with craft breweries and distilleries offering seasonal brews and organic spirits. Take a tour and raise a glass. Cheers!

The rolling hills and dunes of Harbor Country, officially known as the Lake Michigan Shore Appellation, have grown produce with first-class taste and outstanding appearance for over 100 years. On the same latitude and leeward juxtaposition to a large body of water, the terroir is similar to the great wine growing regions of Europe and Napa. The plants grow deep roots here, thanks to the perfect combination of fertile soil, sandy loam and precipitation to nurture flavor-packed fruits and exceptional hops for craft beer. The influence of Lake Michigan, known as "lake effect" coaxes Mother Nature to play gently through the four seasons. Delaying the budding of fruit until after the last spring frost and then in autumn, sharing the influence of summer-warmed lake water to extend the growing season. In winter, a protective blanket of snow envelopes vineyards and fields to protect roots from extreme cold temperatures.

Since the 1800s, farmers were drawn to these ideal growing conditions to grow a vast array of fruits including grapes, peaches, plums, cherries, apples, blueberries and strawberries. Wineries were established along the shore, to be closer to the vineyards and ferment wines known for their crisp texture and exquisite character. The Harbor Country area now boasts over 12 wineries, offering visitors a chance to tour, taste and wander vineyards with stops for farm fresh eats along the way.

Craft beer fans have a choice of local breweries, where crowds are lively and the home-grown beer choices are plentiful. Brewers gather hops grown in their own backyard to conjure craft brews, most especially India Pale Ales that rely on the ever popular hoppy palate. Hops field production continues to increase here to meet the demand, evident along the back roads where vines heavy with cone pods cling to trellis' constructed with 25-foot poles. Imaginative brewers take advantage of Harbor Country's bounty by infusing fresh produce notes into their beers. This friendly competition between breweries provides for an ever changing and creative selection of suds for the beer lover to explore.

From the earth to the bottle, the Harbor Country region offers the freshest beer and wine in the country. The collaborative effort of our dedicated growers and makers is evident in every sip.

LAKE MICHIGAN SHORE APPELLATION FACTS

WINE

Lake Michigan shore appellation extends 72 miles along the eastern shore of the lake, and covers 1,280,000 acres.

The oldest commercial grape production dates back to 1867.

Michigan is ranked 13th in wine production in the nation. Also, Michigan is the fourth largest grape-growing state in the nation.

LMSA produces half of the state wine grape production. Berrien County is one of the leading fruit producing counties in the nation. 40% of Michigan's quality wine grapes are grown within 25 miles of Lake Michigan.

2.7+ million gallons of wine is produced annually in Michigan. Wine harvest begins at the end of August into early November.

CRAFT BEER

1.2 pounds of hops are needed to make a barrel of craft beer

Michigan is number 1 in hops production outside of the Pacific Northwest.

810 acres of hops are grown in Michigan

Harbor Country and Beyond

Harbor Country® traces its roots to the early days of the Potawatomi Tribes who gamed, fished and cherished the waters and woods of the area. But it was Cpt. Wessel Whittaker whose ship was forced to harbor in New Buffalo during a storm in 1834, who is credited with laying the foundation for the community that would become a vacation destination.

Located in the southwest corner of Berrien County, Michigan, Harbor Country stretches 15 miles north from the Michigan state line and inland 8 miles to Three Oaks. It consists of eight eclectic small towns

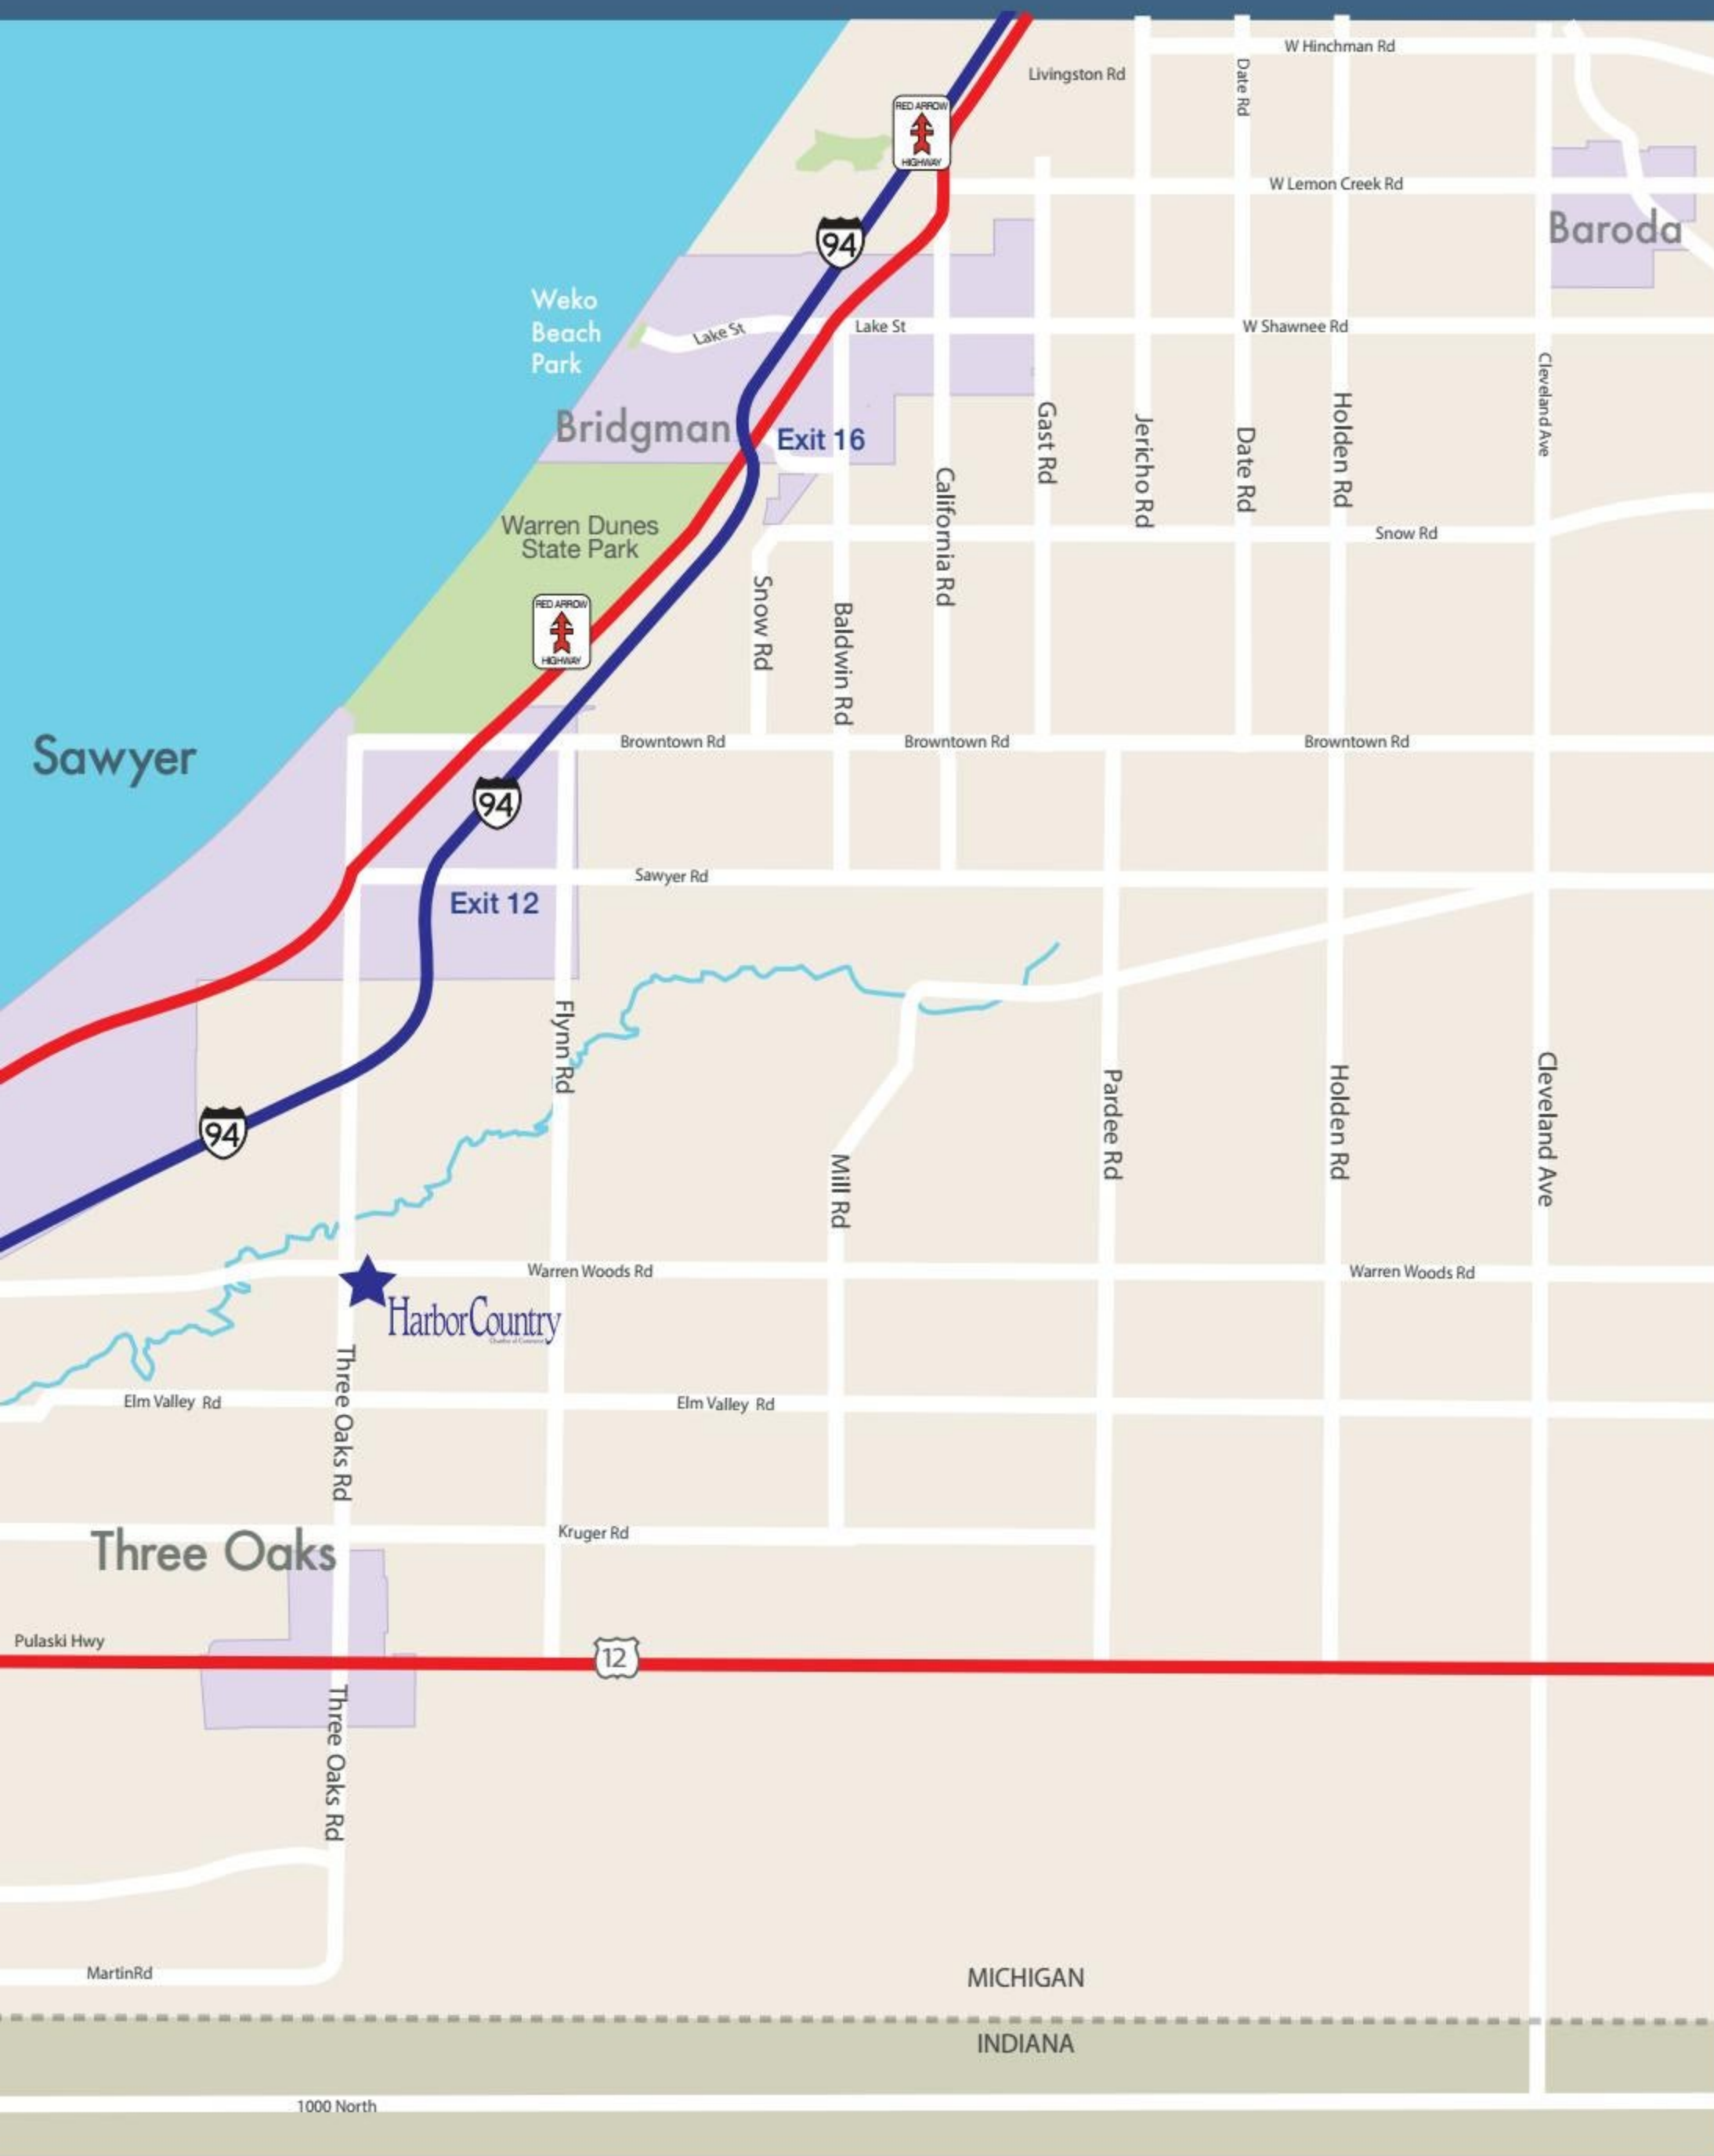

– Michiana, Grand Beach, New Buffalo, Three Oaks, Union Pier, Lakeside, Harbert, and Sawyer – that represent the best of both worlds: endless days at the beach and countrysides brimming with farms and orchards.

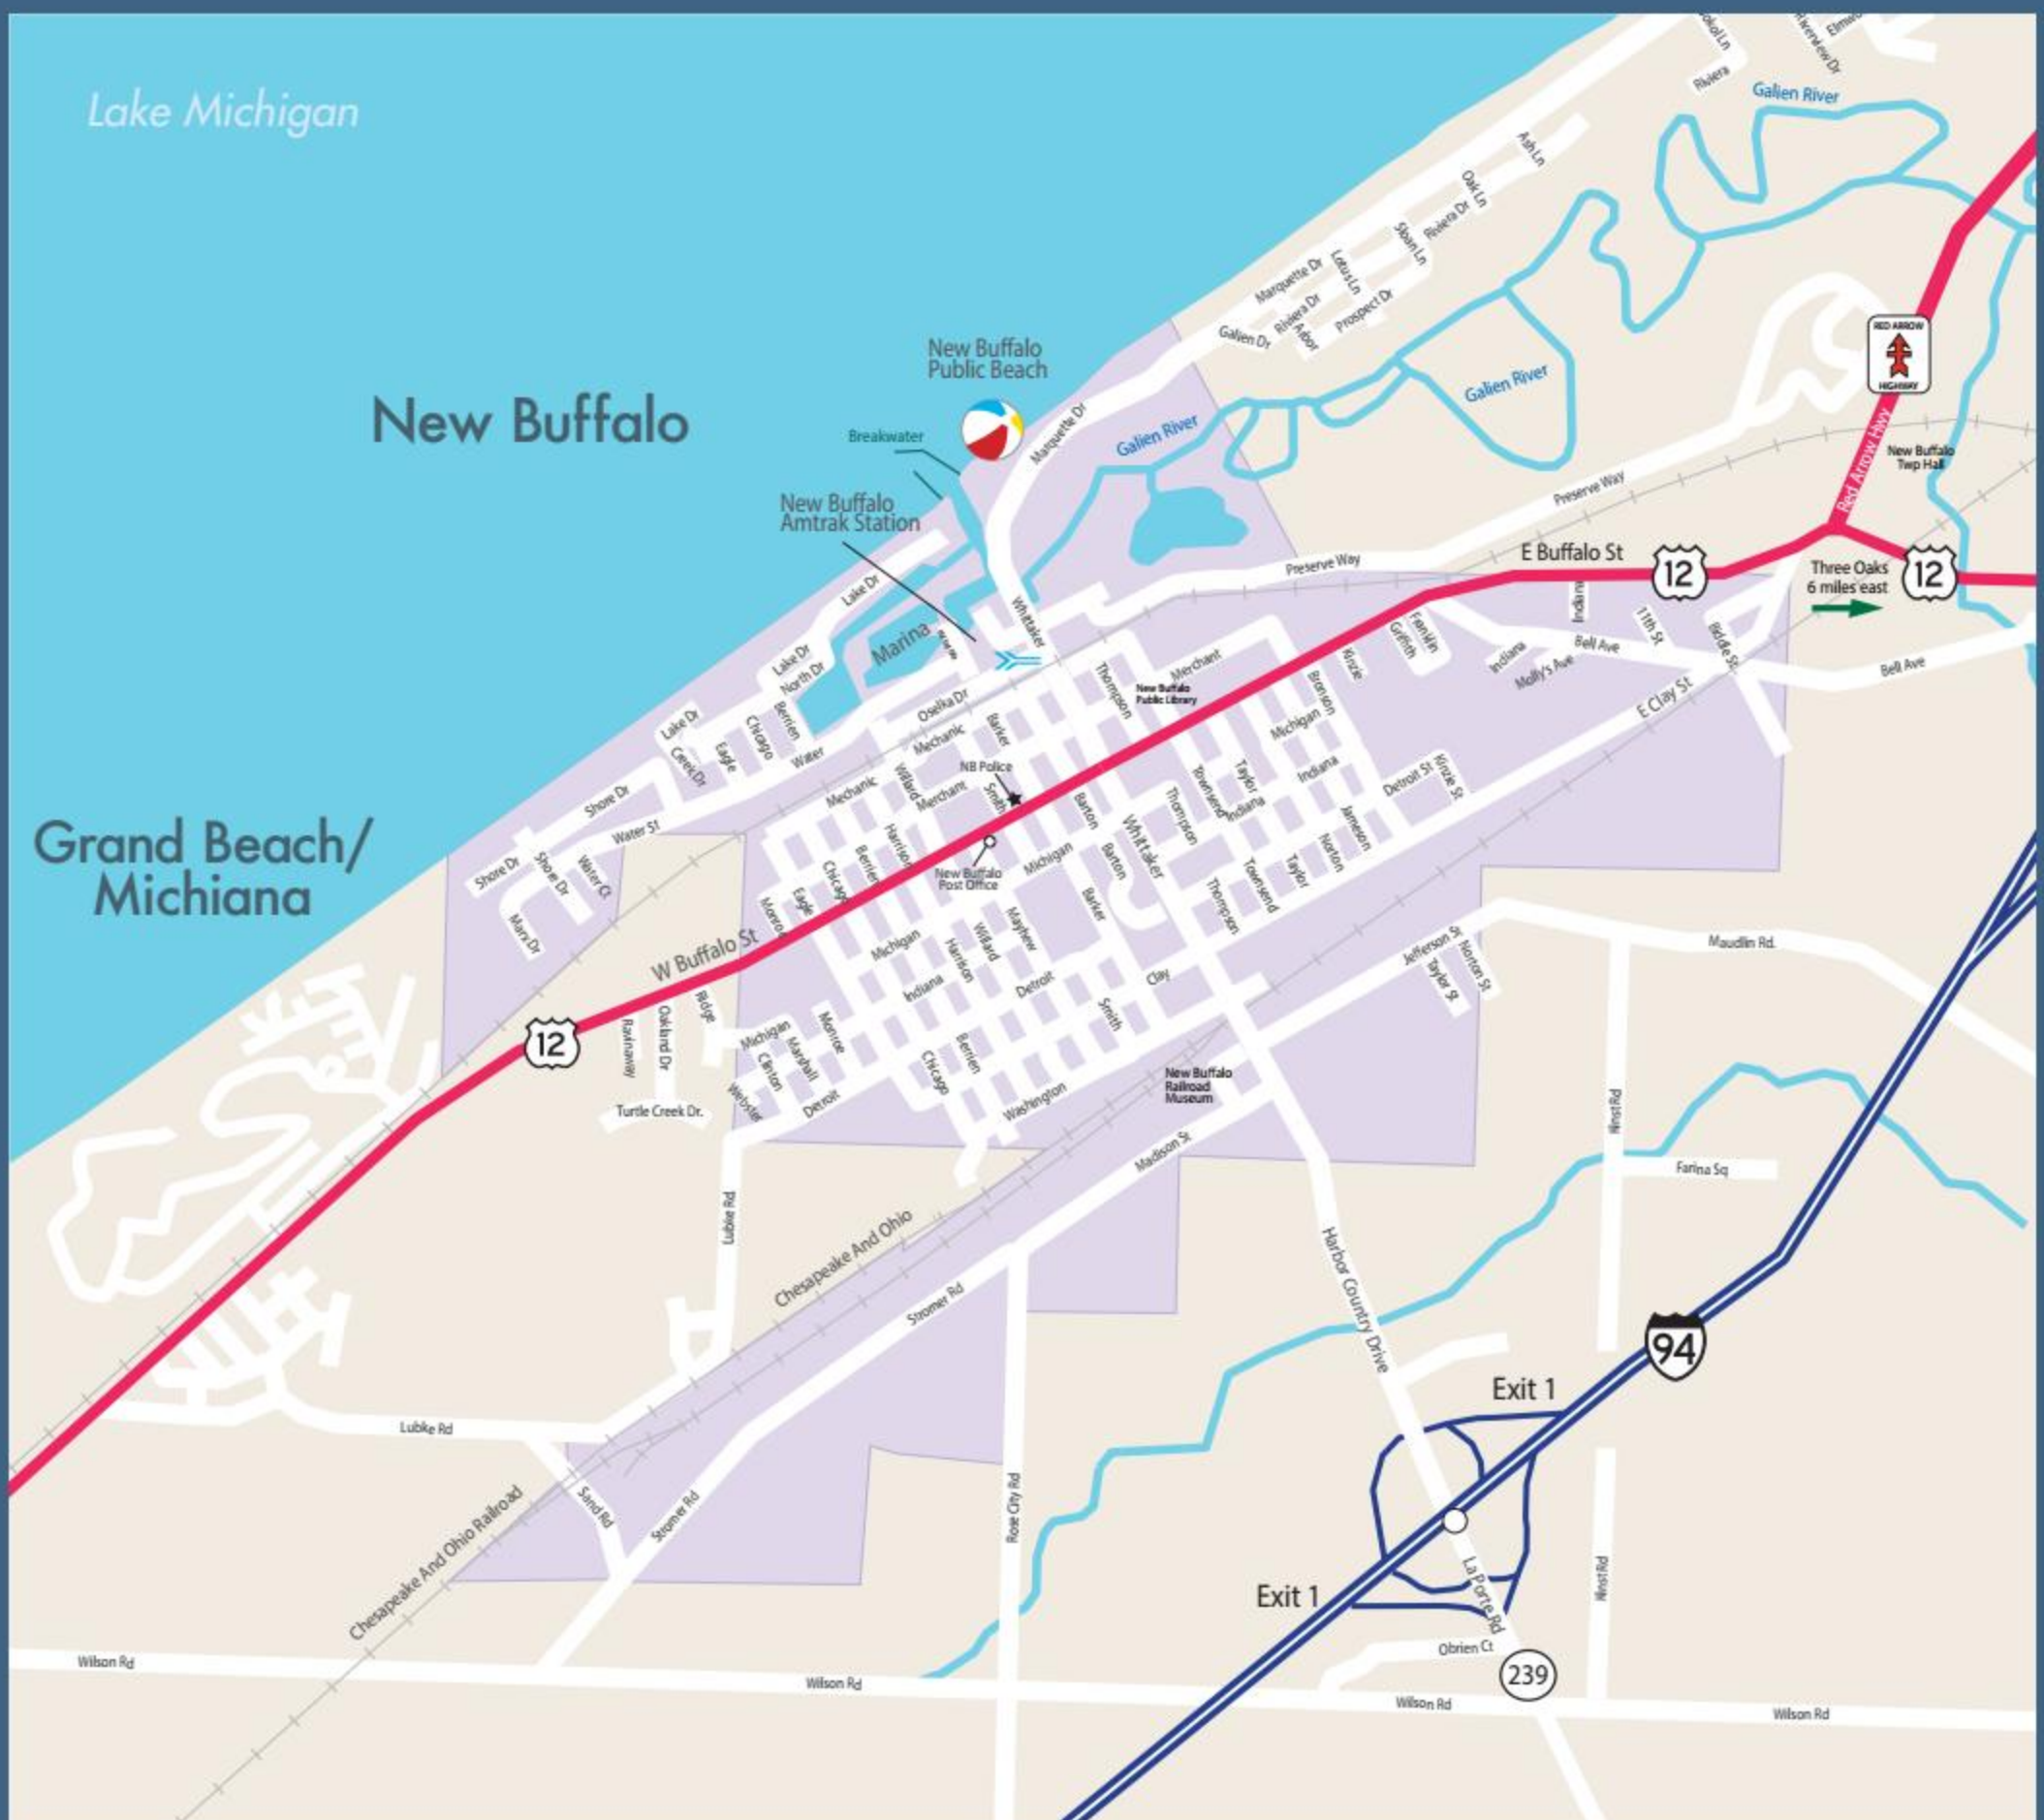

Harbor Country is close by, yet a world away. Only 70 miles from downtown Chicago, it provides the perfect escape for a day trip, week-end getaway or vacation stay. It is driving distance from major Midwest cities like Detroit, Indianapolis, Grand Rapids and St. Louis. With its central location, Harbor Country has become the place for families and friends to connect via train, plane or automobile.

A trademarked destination, Harbor Country has long been known as a summer vacation hot spot referred to as "The Hamptons of the Midwest" and "Chicago's Riviera". Today, with its vibrant arts and culture community, a lively local food scene, and an explosion of world-class wineries, craft breweries and distilleries, it's no wonder that Harbor Country is becoming a year-round home for ex-urbanites in search of a slower pace of life along the Lake Michigan shore.

New Buffalo

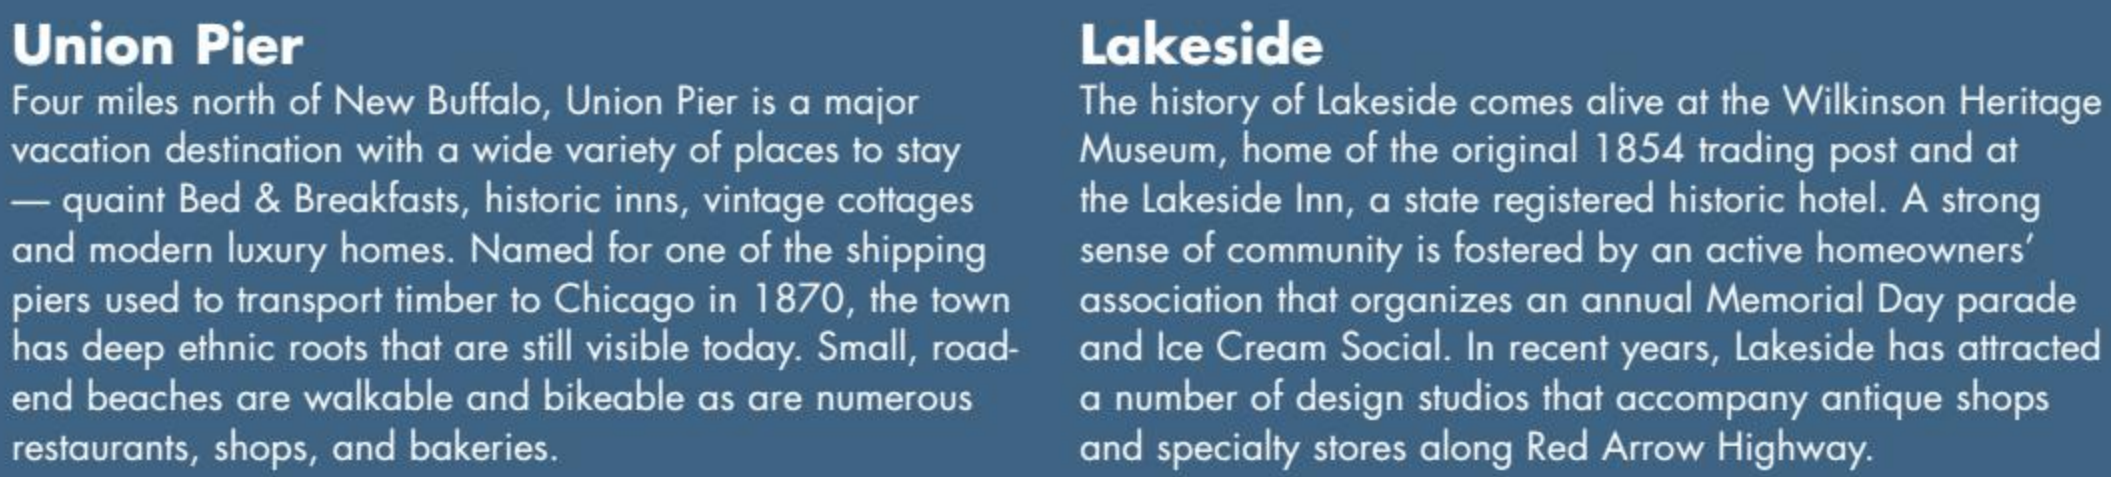

New Buffalo is the gateway to Michigan and the cornerstone city of Harbor Country. Its harbor boasts the largest number of slips on the sunset coast, a public boat launch, transient marina and large public beach – all walking distance from the downtown district. A variety of unique stores, eateries and lodging facilities line the streets. There is an Amtrak stop with three daily trains and shuttle service to the Four Winds Casino.

Grand Beach

The stately white gates of Grand Beach have welcomed visitors and Chicago politicians to the village since the 1900s. Initially developed as a resort area, Grand Beach is home to a public golf course, nearly 50 Sears & Roebuck cottages and three Frank Lloyd Wright homes. There is a small commercial district along U.S. Highway 12.

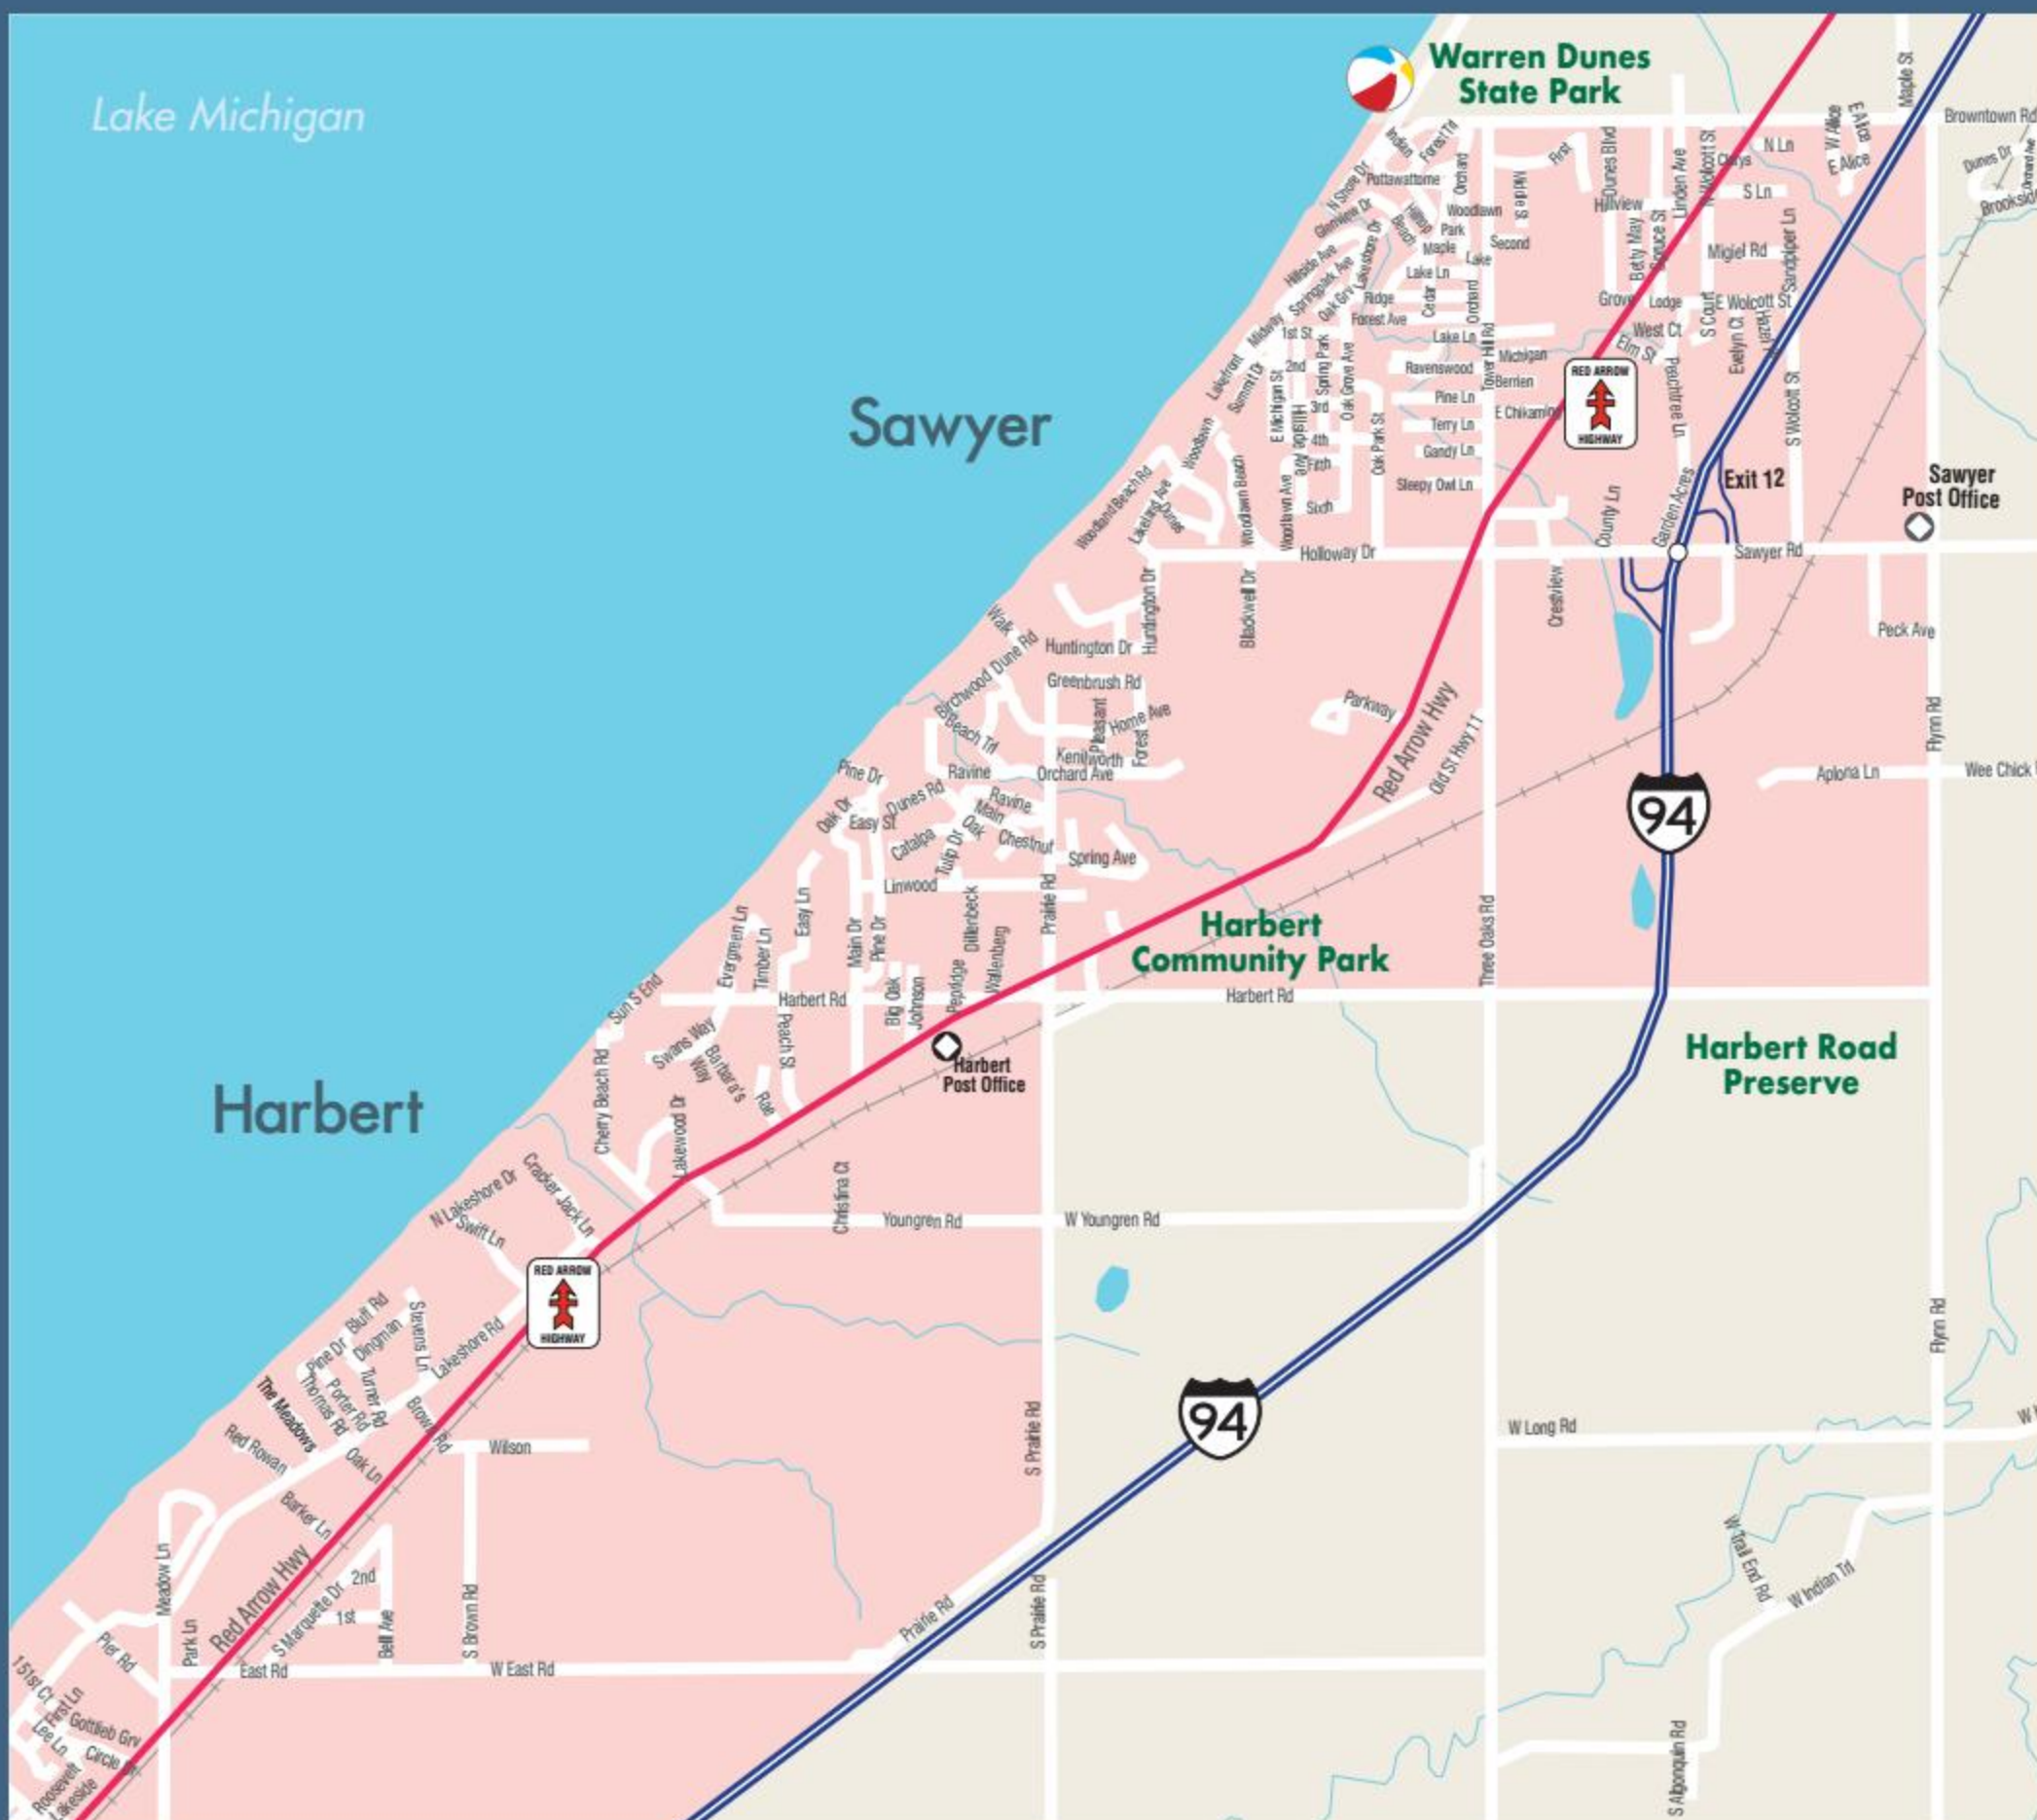

Michiana

The Village of Michiana is the southernmost town of Harbor Country and one of the last areas in the region to be developed. Best known for its “Michiana” log homes, built into the dense woods that dot the shores of Lake Michigan, the village is primarily a quiet, residential neighborhood. The most often heard question is, “What stop are you at?” referring to the old bus route stations that still dot Lake Shore Drive.

Four miles north of New Buffalo, Union Pier is a major vacation destination with a wide variety of places to stay — quaint Bed & Breakfasts, historic inns, vintage cottages and modern luxury homes. Named for one of the shipping piers used to transport timber to Chicago in 1870, the town has deep ethnic roots that are still visible today. Small, road-end beaches are walkable and bikeable as are numerous restaurants, shops, and bakeries.

The history of Lakeside comes alive at the Wilkinson Heritage Museum, home of the original 1854 trading post and at the Lakeside Inn, a state registered historic hotel. A strong sense of community is fostered by an active homeowners' association that organizes an annual Memorial Day parade and Ice Cream Social. In recent years, Lakeside has attracted a number of design studios that accompany antique shops and specialty stores along Red Arrow Highway.

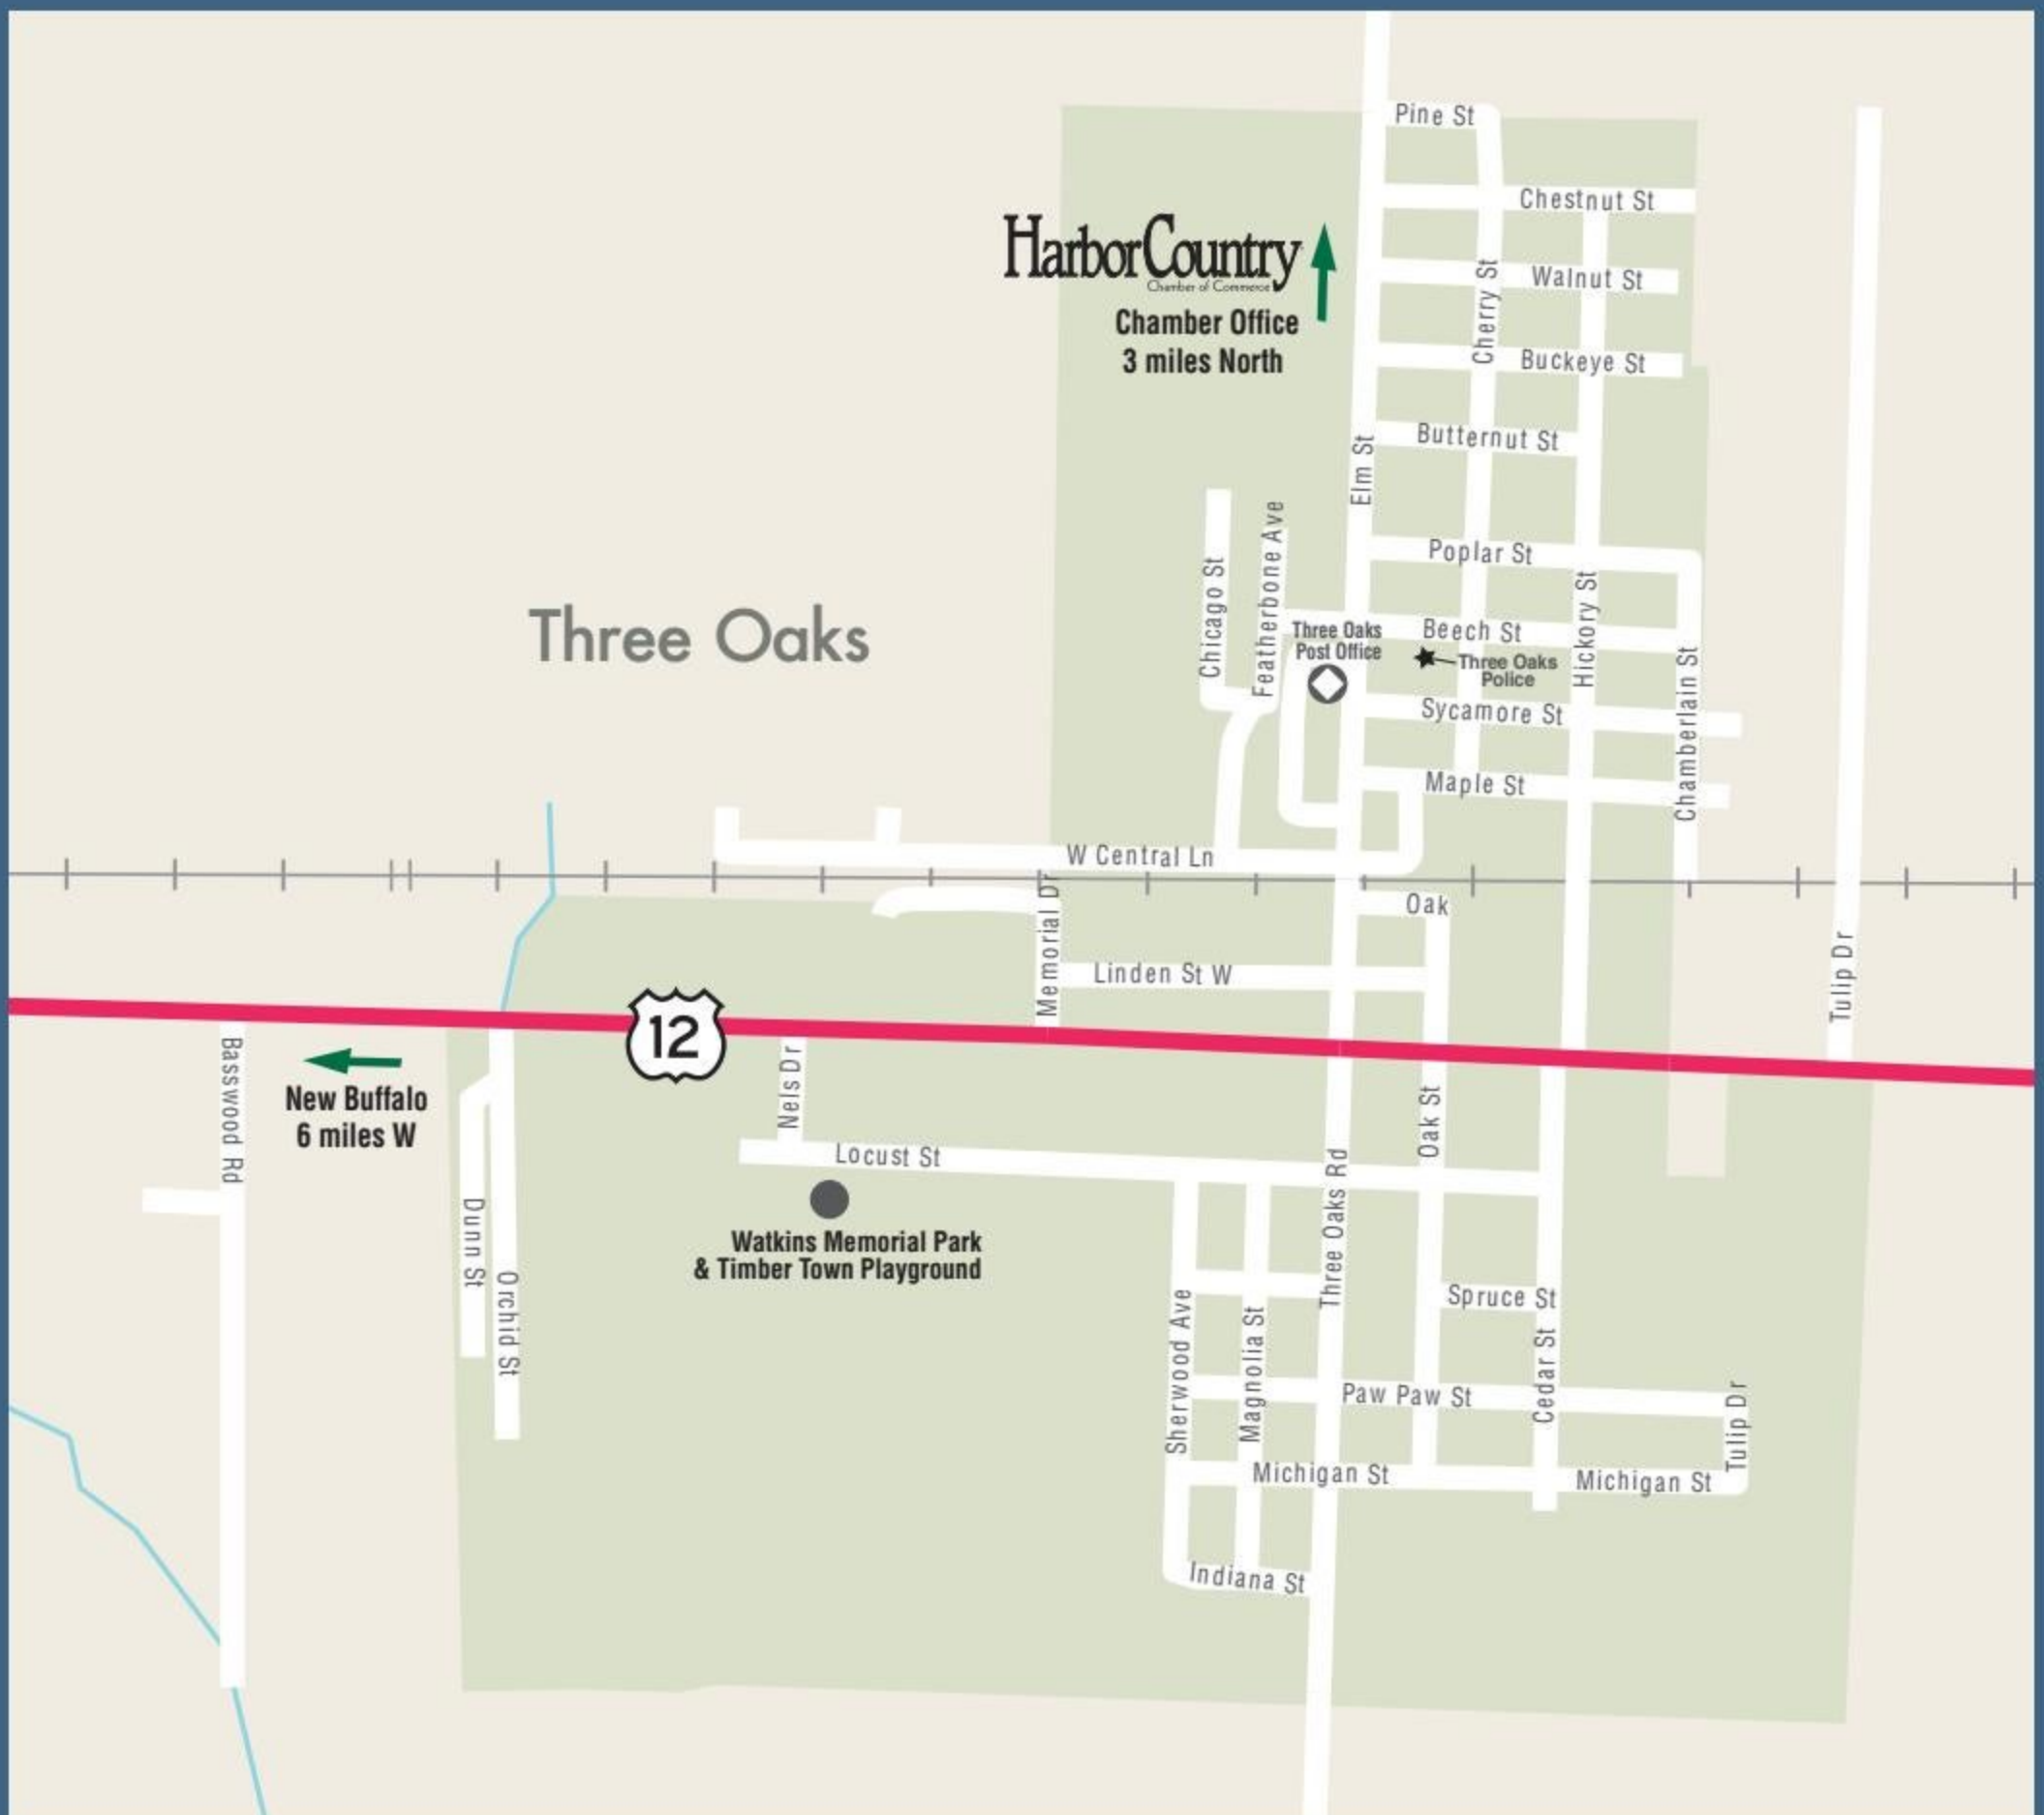

Harbert

Harbert has changed since the days Carl Sandburg and his goats roamed its wooded lanes, but has lost none of its appeal. The influence of the Scandinavian families lives on at several Swedish influenced businesses, which co-exist with restaurants, antique stores and furniture galleries. Harbert Community Park is popular with visitors and residents alike with its playgrounds, dog park and new Carl Sandburg memorial.

Sawyer

The northernmost community of Harbor Country, Sawyer, is home to one of Michigan's top destinations – Warren Dunes State Park. The Park offers acres of dunes, campgrounds, and a dedicated dog-friendly beach. Downtown Sawyer has grown tremendously over the past few years. It is home to a local craft-brewery, a destination garden center, restaurants, art galleries, and an old fashioned hardware store.

Three Oaks

The Village of Three Oaks is the arts and cultural center of Harbor Country with a live performance theater, fine arts cinema, art galleries, eclectic shops, and one of Michigan's largest organic distilleries located on a historic Main Street. The Village hosts the world's largest Flag Day parade and the state's biggest bicycle event, the annual "Apple Cider Century" which brings more than 5,000 cyclists to enjoy 100 miles of Harbor Country trails.

TINY HOUSES

Do you think the tiny homes on HGTV are cool? Wait until you see ours. We've been perfecting them for 15 years. We have bedrooms and sleeping lofts. Screened-in porches and full-sized appliances. A/C and cable TV. You get star-filled nights, campfire stories, and soaring trees, AND comfy beds, ESPN, and a microwave!

Lakeside Cabins Resort opened in 2004, and 15 years later it has become a premier destination in Southwest Michigan. With over 60 acres of lakes, woods, and open fields, Guests and Owners enjoy 2 heated swimming pools, 2 stocked fishing lakes, The Lodge Game Room, shuffleboard, a playground, full basketball court, sand volleyball, lake toys, kayaks, and stand-up paddleboards.

Need more to do? The Resort offers fun activities including arts and crafts, athletic events, games, Bingo, live music, kid's events, pizza nights, ice cream socials and cookouts.

For 15 years, Lakeside Cabins Resort has delivered on two product promises – (1) First Class, Affordable Second Homes, and (2) Family-Friendly, Activity-Filled Vacation Rentals. We're proud to have over 170 Owners and thousands of Rental Guests who'll testify we've done exactly that with both options.

Looking for an affordable second home? Brand new and resale cabins are available for purchase starting at $70,000.

Looking for a memorable long weekend or full week of vacation fun? Cabin rentals are available from $129 a night.

Lakeside Cabins Resort is a perfect place for a quiet getaway or family fun. And it's only an hour away from Chicago.

Come see what so many have already discovered.

Lakeside Cabins Resort is conveniently located at 7650 Warren Woods Road, Three Oaks, Michigan 49128, right off I-94 Exit 6 at Union Pier.
